

Notice of Republican Candidate Disqualification

Prepared by the Division of Elections May 10, 2018

Following an administrative hearing conducted pursuant to Maine's election statutes and appeals to Maine's Superior and Supreme Judicial Courts, the candidate listed below has been disqualified from the June 12, 2018 Republican Primary Election ballot. The candidate's name remains on the ballot because the disqualification decision was issued after ballots had been prepared. A vote for this candidate will not be counted and will be treated as a blank vote.

Office	Party	Candidate Name and Residence	Date of Disqualification
U.S. Senator	Republican	Max Patrick Linn (Bar Harbor)	4/24/2018