John Marshall, Chair of the Eliot Republican Town Committee, has announced that Eliot Republicans will caucus on February 28, 2022 at 7:00 pm in the Eliot Town Hall located at 1333 State Road. Candidates for Maine House District 150, David Rumery, and Senate District 35, Julie Rakic, will be in attendance.

The purpose of the caucus is to elect Delegates and Alternates to the State Convention, nominate delegates to the York County Republican Committee, elect Republican Town Committee officers, and organize for the upcoming elections. The State Convention will be held at the Augusta Civic Center on April 29th and April 30th. It is an excellent opportunity for Republicans from throughout Maine to meet and speak with each other and for those running for office to introduce themselves.

Town of Eliot Registrar of Voters will be available for one-half hour at the beginning of the caucus to register as a Republican any Eliot resident who is not registered to vote in Eliot, anyone who is registered as unenrolled and wishes to enroll as a Republican, and anyone who will be 18 by the November 8, 2022 election, as well as to assist in making any name or address changes that might be required.

All Eliot Republicans are urged to attend and participate in their town caucus.
